

Lesson: Word Parts

Lesson Topic: Identify prefixes, suffixes, and root words

Question 1:

bicycle

Which part of this word is underlined?

- the onomatopoeia
- the stem
- the prefix
- the suffix

Question 2:

overplayed

Which part of this word is underlined?

- the prefix
- the suffix
- the stem
- the dictionary

Question 3:

boxer

Which part of this word is underlined?

- the stem
- the alliteration
- the prefix
- the suffix

Question 4:

nonfat

Which part of this word is underlined?

- the character
- the prefix
- the suffix

- the stem

Question 5:

concussionion

Which part of this word is underlined?

- the stem
- the pattern
- the prefix
- the suffix

Lesson Topic: Use prefixes to determine word meaning

Question 1:

Use the prefix to determine the meaning of the word.

misjudge

What does the word misjudge mean?

- judge too much
- judge too little
- judge wrongly
- judge correctly

Question 2:

Use the prefix to determine the meaning of the word.

nonfunctional

What does the word nonfunctional mean?

- functional again
- always functional
- above functional
- not functional

Question 3:

Use the prefix to determine the meaning of the word.

underfed

What does the word underfed mean?

- fed too much
- fed wrongly
- not fed
- fed too little

Question 4:

Use the prefix to determine the meaning of the word.

overhead

What does the word overhead mean?

- above head level
- not head level
- under head level
- equal to head level

Question 5:

Use the prefix to determine the meaning of the word.

inexact

What does the word inexact mean?

- wrongly exact
- the most exact
- not exact
- exact before

Lesson Topic: Use suffixes to determine word meaning

Question 1:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word.

conductor

What does the word conductor mean?

- a person who conducts
- always conducting
- to conduct
- the process of conducting

Question 2:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word.

enjoyment

What does the word enjoyment mean?

- not able to enjoy
- a person who enjoys
- made of something enjoyable
- the action of enjoying

Question 3:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word.

dampen

What does the word dampen mean?

- never damp
- to make damp
- the state of being damp
- the action of making damp

Question 4:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word.

juicy

What does the word juicy mean?

- to make juice
- like juice
- the state of being juice
- a person who drinks juice

Question 5:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word.

busyness

What does the word busyness mean?

- never busy
- a person who is busy
- to make busy
- the state of being busy