

Lesson: Dictionaries, Thesauruses, and Glossaries

Lesson Topic: Differentiate Between Dictionaries, Glossaries, and Thesauruses

Question 1:

Morris hears someone use the word remove as a noun instead of a verb. He wants to look up what it means as a noun. Which resource would be most useful for this task?

- an atlas
- a dictionary
- a thesaurus
- a glossary

Question 2:

Roy is reading a book about World War II when he encounters the word armistice. He wants to know what the author means by this word. Which resource would be most useful for this task?

- an encyclopedia
- an index
- a glossary
- a thesaurus

Question 3:

Therese's grammar book uses the word proper in a different way than she is familiar with. She wants to know exactly what the authors mean. Which resource would be most useful for this task?

- a dictionary
- a glossary
- an encyclopedia
- a thesaurus

Question 4:

For a class project, Miguel is on a team creating a travel brochure for ancient Rome. His teammates have used see many times in the brochure, but they agree that they should use more variety in their word choice. Which resource would be most useful for this task?

- a thesaurus
- an encyclopedia
- a glossary
- a dictionary

Question 5:

Imani has been cast in a play, and she does not know how to pronounce several words from her lines. Which resource would be most useful for helping her learn their pronunciations?

- a glossary
- a dictionary
- a thesaurus
- an encyclopedia

Lesson Topic: Use Guide Words

Question 1:

Below are the guide words for four dictionary pages. Click on the page that would contain the word certain.

circumference confident craft cuddle

calm chip

courage crackle

Question 2:

Below are the guide words for four dictionary pages. Click on the page that would contain the word grow.

grunt gusto

grommet gross

group grub

grapple groggy

Question 3:

Below are the guide words for four dictionary pages. Click on the page that would contain the word pox.

poultice

pour

plural

pod

pogo

portion poverty

pulmonary

Question 4:

Below are the guide words for four dictionary pages. Click on the page that would contain the word horrible.

hog

holt

hobble

hodgepodge

hope

house

homage

home

Question 5:

Below are the guide words for four dictionary pages. Click on the page that would contain the word zoology.

zouk

zucchini

zombie

zonal

zone

zori

zipper

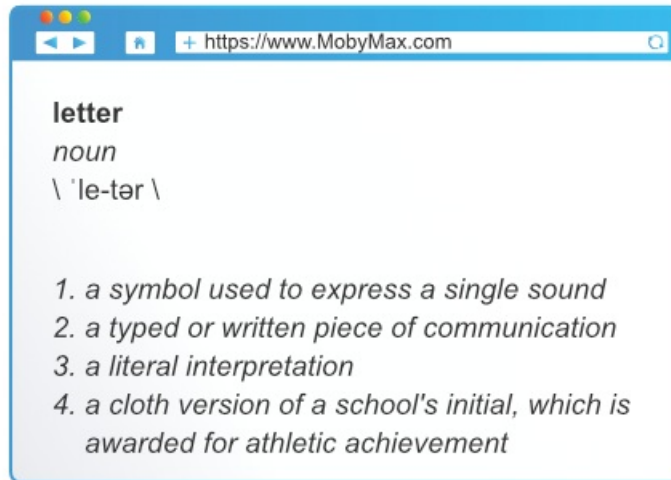

zocalo

Lesson Topic: Choose the Correct Definition from a Dictionary Entry

Question 1:

Click on the meaning of letter that matches its use in the sentence below.

Randolph always followed the letter of the law, but he sometimes found ways around the true intention of it.

Question 2:

Click on the meaning of work that matches its use in the sentence below.

The rabbits put a lot of work into digging their dens and tunnels.

Question 3:

Click on the meaning of rose that matches its use in the sentence below.

The sun rose over the hills on the horizon.

Question 4:

Click on the meaning of lead that matches its use in the sentence below.

Janet has become class president, and she will lead the entire student body government.

Question 5:

Click on the meaning of flush that matches its use in the sentence below.

As the orchestra played music, Frank felt a flush of excitement fill his heart.

A screenshot of a web browser window with a blue header. The address bar shows the URL <https://www.MobyMax.com>. The main content area displays the word flush in bold, followed by its phonetic transcription *\ 'flʌʃ *. Below this, the word is categorized as a noun and a verb, each with two numbered definitions in italics.

flush *\ 'flʌʃ *

noun

- 1. a rush of emotion*
- 2. the reddening of the face*

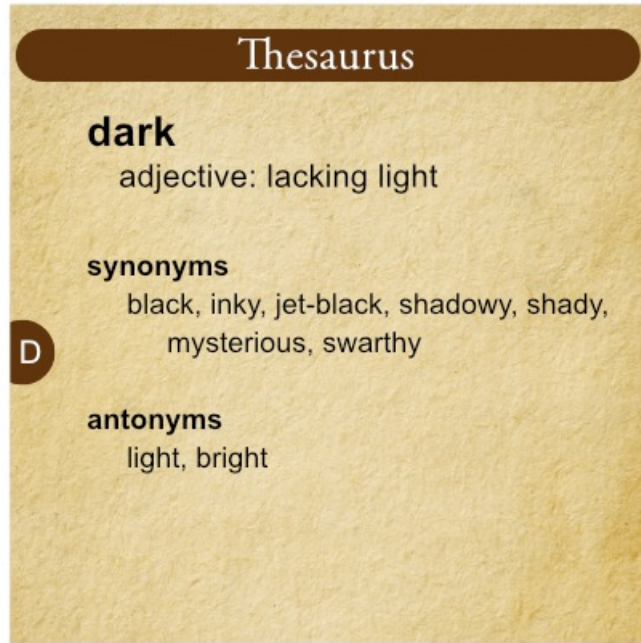

verb

- 1. to pass water through something*
- 2. (of a face) to become hot and red*

Lesson Topic: Use a Thesaurus

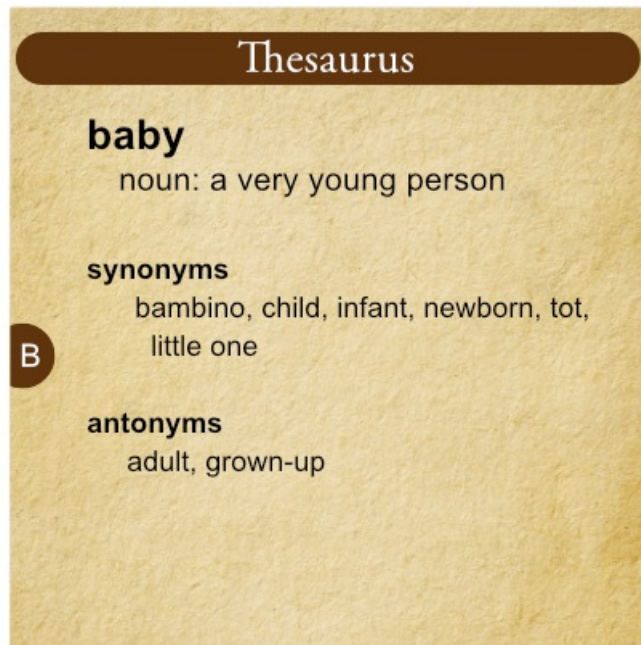

Question 1:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the same meaning as dark.

Question 2:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the same meaning as baby.

Question 3:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the opposite meaning of hungry.

Question 4:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the opposite meaning of temporary.

Question 5:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the same meaning as remove.

A screenshot of a web browser window with a blue header. The address bar shows the URL <https://www.MobyMax.com>. The main content area has a light blue gradient background and contains the following text:

remove verb: take something out or away

synonyms
clear, detach, shift, unfasten, withdraw antonyms

include, involve, place

Lesson Topic: Use a Glossary

Question 1:

Click on the meaning of the word lyrical.

Glossary

chi·as·tic \ 'kī-as-tik \
adjective
returning to an idea from the beginning at the end of a part or whole of a work

dac·tyl \ 'dak-təl \
noun
a pattern consisting of a stressed syllable followed by two unstressed syllables

in·ter·nal rhyme \ in-'tər-nəl 'rīm \
noun
a rhyme between words in which one or all of the words do not end a line

ly·ri·cal \ 'lir-i-kəl \
adjective
describing a short poem of strong feeling

Question 2:

Click on the meaning of the word paranoia.

Glossary

ma·ni·a \ 'mā-nē-ə \
noun
an unhealthy interest in or desire for something

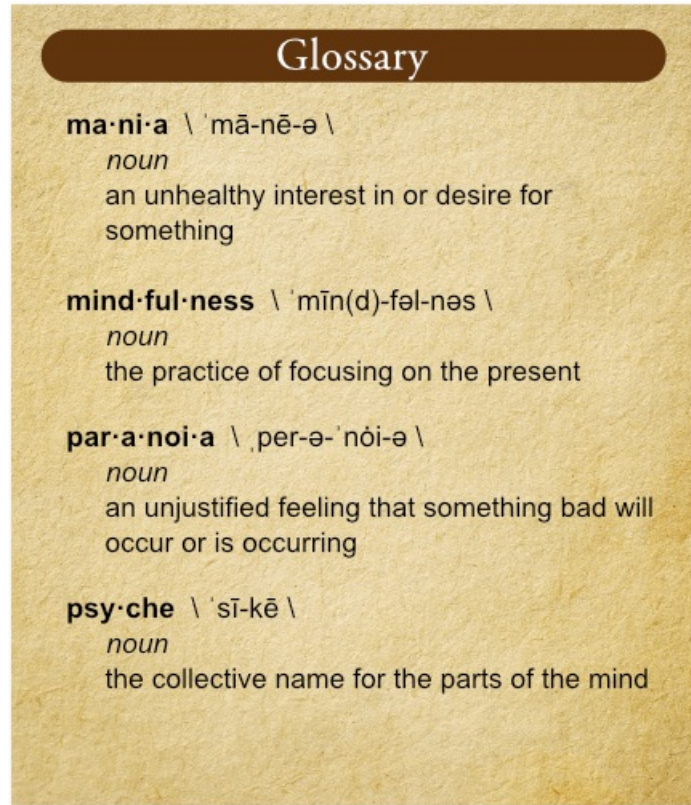

mind·ful·ness \ 'mīn(d)-fəl-nəs \
noun
the practice of focusing on the present

par·a·noi·a \ ,per-ə-'nɔi-ə \
noun
an unjustified feeling that something bad will occur or is occurring

psy·che \ 'sī-kē \
noun
the collective name for the parts of the mind

Question 3:

Click on the meaning of the word mania.

A rectangular card with a light beige, textured background and a dark brown header. The header contains the word "Glossary" in white serif font. Below the header, four words are listed in a dark brown serif font, each followed by its phonetic transcription, part of speech, and definition.

Glossary

ma·ni·a \ 'mā-nē-ə \
noun
an unhealthy interest in or desire for something

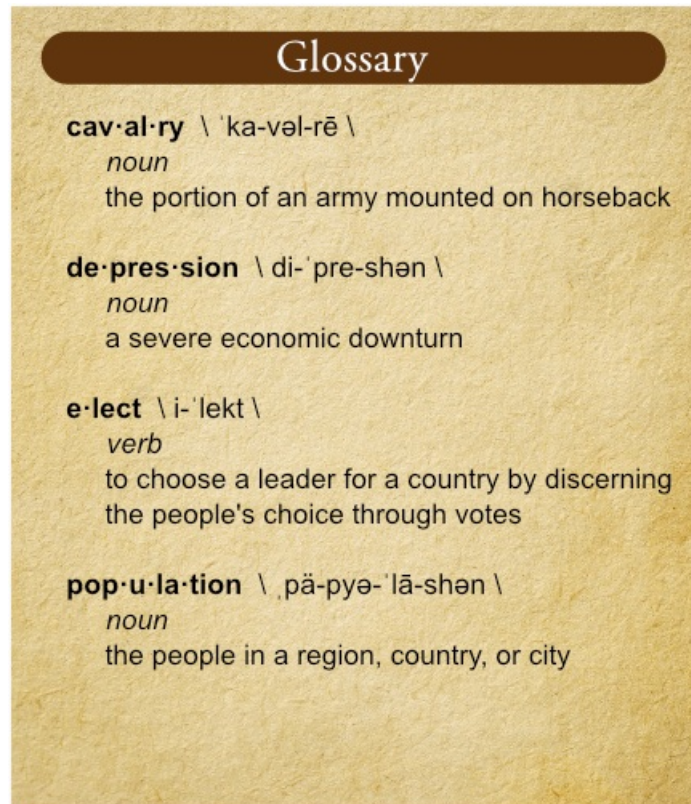

mind·ful·ness \ 'mīn(d)-fəl-nəs \
noun
the practice of focusing on the present

par·a·noi·a \ ,per-ə-'nói-ə \
noun
an unjustified feeling that something bad will occur or is occurring

psy·che \ 'sī-kē \
noun
the collective name for the parts of the mind

Question 4:

Click on the meaning of the word depression.

A rectangular card with a light beige, textured background and a dark brown header. The header contains the word "Glossary" in white serif font. Below the header, four words are listed in a dark brown serif font, each followed by its phonetic transcription, part of speech, and definition.

Glossary

cav·al·ry \ 'ka-vəl-rē \
noun
the portion of an army mounted on horseback

de·pres·sion \ di-'pre-shən \
noun
a severe economic downturn

e·lect \ i-'lekt \
verb
to choose a leader for a country by discerning the people's choice through votes

pop·u·la·tion \ ,pä-pyē-'lā-shən \
noun
the people in a region, country, or city

Question 5:

Click on the meaning of the word goal.

Glossary

cen·ter cir·cle \ 'sen-tər 'sər-kəl \

noun

a circular marking in the middle of a soccer field

fullback \ 'fùl-bak \

noun

a rear defender

goal \ 'gōl \

noun

one of two areas on a soccer field where points can be scored goal·keep·er \ 'gōl- ,kē-pər \

noun

the player who tries to prevent the other team from getting points

Lesson: Lesson Test: Dictionaries, Thesauruses, and Glossaries

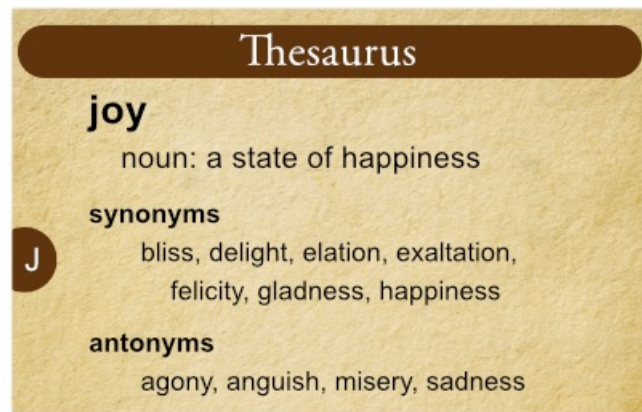

Lesson Topic: Use a Thesaurus

Question 1:

Click on the section of the thesaurus entry that shows words that have the same meaning as evil.

Question 2:

Based on the thesaurus entry, which words could replace joy in the sentence below?

The girl was filled with joy when she got to meet her new seeing eye dog for the first time.

- felicity
- gladness
- elation
- misery

Question 3:

Based on the thesaurus entry, which words mean the opposite of examine as it is used in the sentence below?

The judges examine every entry in the art contest.

- peruse
- overlook
- review
- ignore

Lesson Topic: Use a Glossary

Question 1:

Click on the meaning of the word artifact.

Glossary

an·thro·pol·o·gy \ ,an(t)-thrə-'pä-lə-jē \
noun
the study of the origin and behavior of humans

ar·ti·fact \ 'är-ti-'fakt \
noun
a material object from a civilization

bar·bar·i·an \ bär-'ber-ē-ən \
noun
an antique Greek word for non-Greek-speaking people

bi·og·ra·phy \ bī-'ä-grə-fē \
noun
a written account of a person's life

Question 2:

Click on the meaning of the word precipitation.

Glossary

pre·cip·i·ta·tion \ pri-'si-pə-'tā-shən \
noun
any form of moisture coming from the sky as a result of weather

pre·vail·ing wind \ pri-'vāl-ij 'wind \
noun
the direction from which the wind usually blows in a given area

rain·bow \ 'rān-'bō \
noun
a colorful optical phenomenon consisting of bands of color ridge \ 'rij \

noun
an area of high pressure in the atmosphere