

Lesson: Affixes and Roots

Lesson Topic: Use Prefixes to Interpret New Words 2

Question 1:

Use the prefixes to match the correct meaning to each word.

Word	Meaning
octangle
pentangle
quadrangle

a shape with eight angles and eight sides	a shape with four angles and four sides
a shape with five angles and five sides	a shape with ten angles and ten sides

Question 2:

Use the prefixes to match the correct meaning to each word.

Word	Meaning
nonagram
pentagram
decagram

a star with five points	a star with seven points
a star with ten points	a star with nine points

Question 3:

Use the prefixes to match the correct meaning to each word.

Word	Meaning
monochrome
trichrome
bichrome
made with a single color	made with three colors
made with ten colors	made with two colors

Question 4:

Use the prefixes to match the correct meaning to each word.

Word	Meaning
hexagon octagon pentagon
a shape with eight angles and eight sides	a shape with four angles and four sides
a shape with five angles and five sides	a shape with six angles and six sides

Question 5:

Use the prefixes to match the correct meaning to each word.

Word	Meaning
semiannual
biannual
triannual

occurring once every ten years

occurring once every three years

occurring once every two years

occurring once every half a year

Lesson Topic: Use Suffixes to Interpret New Words 1

Question 1:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word regretful.

- full of regret
- having no regret
- someone who feels regret
- an action that causes regret

Question 2:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word actionable.

- involving more action
- full of action
- without action
- able to be acted on

Question 3:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word digestible.

- more digested
- without digesting
- quickly digested
- able to be digested

Question 4:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word gaseous.

- without gas
- requiring more gas
- able to add gas
- characterized by gas

Question 5:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word affectionless.

- having the most affection
- similar to affection
- without affection

○ full of affection

Lesson Topic: Use Suffixes to Interpret New Words 2

Question 1:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word interpreter.

- related to interpreting
- the act of interpreting
- something that needs to be interpreted
- a person who interprets

Question 2:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word submission.

- the need to submit
- someone who submits
- refusing to submit
- the act of submitting

Question 3:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word examiner.

- the act of examining
- something to be examined
- a person who examines something
- the result of examining

Question 4:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word accusation.

- the act of accusing
- a person who accuses
- the result of accusing
- the ability to accuse

Question 5:

Use the suffix to determine the meaning of the word awareness.

- most aware
- the condition of being aware
- able to be aware

similar to being aware