

A B C E F L M N O O R T U

- ★ Anagrams use the SAME letters but mixed up (ear, are, era)
- ★ -ful is a suffix meaning "full of"
- ★ -able is a suffix meaning "able to"
- ★ un- is a prefix that means "not" or "the opposite of"
- ★ Antonyms have opposite meaning; synonyms have the same meaning

1. You use it to hear.
2. Add a T. Pronounced two ways. When you cry, a rolls down your face OR A rip or a in your jeans is bad news.
3. Clear letters. Antonym for fake.
4. Clear letters. Mom demanded, "Go clean your !"
5. Clear letters. Please take this home for your parents to sign.
6. Clear letters. To heal from disease.
7. Exchange first vowel with a new vowel. Handle with !
8. Anagram#7. Cars go very fast in a .
9. Clear letters. Raise your hand if you are to help this afternoon. (It's also a suffix)
10. Add a T. Please don't put your feet on the .
11. Exchange first consonant with a new one. A is a story with a moral or a lesson.
12. Clear letters. Not real.
13. Keep prefix. Not able.
14. Keep suffix. When someone talks too much, they are giving you an . (full ear!)
15. Keep suffix. Full of tears.
16. Keep suffix. A full room.
17. Keep suffix. Full of care.
18. Clear letters. Able to note or important to remember.
19. Keep suffix. Able to cure.
20. Clear letters. Not clear.
21. Clear letters. A feeling of happiness and safety.
22. Able to feel comfort.
23. Not able to feel comfort.